1011 Locust St.

Des Moines, IA. 50309

The Temple for the Performing Arts was completely renovated in October 2002.

The theatre, located on the second floor, measures around 4,000 square feet. The room is acoustically equipped for a wide range of musical and theatrical performances.

The theatre can accommodate 299 people in theater-style seating. The lobby and theatre are fully accessible.

The stage size is approximately 24' x 24'.

Masking legs are located at the front, mid, and rear of stage.

Entrances can be made on each side of stage.

There is a large dressing room/green room.

There is an attractive lobby space with concession area. Drinks and snacks are allowed inside the theatre.
